

The Forms of Morality: Shakespeare's Battle Scenes on Film

A Brown Bag Talk With

Greg Semenza

When: November 16, 2016 1:30-3:00 PM

Where: Stern Room, Austin Hall 217

University of Connecticut, Storrs CT

Refreshments will be served

Greg Semenza is a leading scholar in the field of film adaptation studies and Early Modern studies with emphasis on Shakespeare. His books include The History of British Literature on Film: 1895-2015 (Co-authored with Bob Hasenfratz); Graduate Study for the 21st Century: How to Build a Career in the Humanities; and Sport, Politics, and Literature in the English Renaissance.

Presented by the English Department Committee on Speakers and Symposium
Questions: Contact Martha Cutter (Martha.Cutter@uconn.edu)